Mundt Wants Quick Study Of Payoffs

Committee Probers Seeking Evidence In Eight Large Cities

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—Sen. Mundt (R-SD) proposed today that Senate rackets investigators resume quickly their study of alleged payoffs to union officials in Scranton, Pa.

His statement came as other sources said staff investigators for the special Senate committee conducting the inquiry are either "at work or about to be" in eight of the nation's large cities from coast to coast, digging out evidence.

The informants named the cities as New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Los Angeles, Seattle, Omaha, and Detroit.

Mundt told a reporter that Earl P. Bettendorf of Texarkana, Tex., is entitled to the prompt hearing the manufacturer has requested. Bettendorf wants to reply to testimony linking his name with alleged payoffs to two Teamsters Union business agents in Scranton who have been indicted on extortion charges.

Will Be In Washington

Mundt said he will be in Washington all next week, and that if Chairman McClellan (D-Ark.) of the committee will be present also "I am willing" to have the hearing then.

"A man's reputation shouldn't be left bouncing around when he is asking to be heard," Mundt said.

McClellan was in Fort Smith, Ark., today, and the committee's chief counsel, Robert F. Kennedy, was reported in Miami. Both plan to return over the weekend.

Bettendorf Named

Bettendorf's name popped into the committee's hearings on alleged violence and terrorism by labor union "goons" in Scranton. McClellan disclosed he had asked the Justice Department why Bettendorf, as the alleged source of the payoffs, was not also indicted by a federal grand jury which accused business agents Joseph McHugh and Robert Malloy of extorting $4,200 from him.

Sen. McNamara (D-Mich.) pointed out that none of several business firms alleged to have paid off McHugh, Malloy and John Durkin, another Scranton Teamsters business agent, has been indicted. McNamara said he thought that making a payoff is a "worse" offense than receiving one.

Five Persons Die In Crash

DENVER, April 19 (AP)—Five persons died in a head-on automobile collision today during a rainstorm half a mile south of Lafayette, Colo.

Coroner Norman R. Howe identified the victims as Mrs. Irene Ruth Hasenack, 47, of Erie, Colo.; Mrs. Lorene L. Zaruba, about 30, of Erie; Henry Kehm, 27, a Lafayette carpenter; Edna Lucille Senterle, 39, of Lafayette; Bessie Belle Dean, about 25, address unknown.

Patrolman Jake Abandschan said a northbound car driven by Kehm skidded after it had passed another. The sliding car, on the wrong side of the road, was struck by a southbound car driven by Mrs. Hasenack.

The only other passenger in two cars, Don Zaruba, 5, was taken to a physician at Broomfield for treatment of a head laceration.

Red Powers Will Match NATO Bombs

Zhukov Warns West To Keep Hands Off Communist World

MOSCOW, April 19 (AP)—Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov warned the West tonight that the Moscow-directed Warsaw Pact powers will match NATO bomb for bomb, missile for missile.

Nikita Khrushchev told the Western powers to keep their hands off the Communist world, particularly East Germany, lest it become necessary to "rap your knuckles."

Khrushchev, the Communist party boss, speaking at a Polish Embassy reception, extended a somewhat partonizing hand of friendship to Poland and then directed his remarks to the Western powers.

Warn Capitalists

"We want to warn the capitalist countries, do not joke with us, do not try to test us like you did in Hungary with the putsch. You think of doing it, not only in Hungary, but also maybe in East Germany. Be careful. We are not saints and if necessary we will rap your knuckles," he said.

A few minutes earlier, Marshal Zhukov, breibonned Soviet defense minister, told reporters the Soviet Union would see to it that its Communist allies had nuclear weapons and guided missiles to match the weapons America provided for its allies in NATO — the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

"We will carry out all measures necessary to serve as countersteps for any actions th. NATO takes," he said. "We have at our disposal adequate means to retaliate against any action of NATO."

Zhukov, Soviet World War II hero, said he did not think much of the theory that nuclear weapons could serve as a deterrent to war.

Rely On Nuclear Weapons

He told reporters crowded around him in the hot, packed Kremlin reception room: "If there are weapons, they will be used and the proof of it is that the powers are cutting down by half on conventional weapons and relying more and more on nuclear weapons."

The reception was in honor of Polish Premier Joseph Cyrankiewicz, stopping off in Moscow on the way home from a tour of the Orient.

Pollen Caused Tree To Smoke

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 19 (AP)—A Little Rock allergy specialist today explained the "smoking" mulberry tree.

Dr. Alan G. Cazort said that what appeared to be puffs of smoke coming from branches of the tree here yesterday was simply pollen.

"The pollen of the mulberry has the smallest granules of any known pollen in the United States," Dr. Cazort said. "It is released as if by a tiny spring and puffs into the air like smoke."

The physician said that Indians called the mulberry "smoke trees."

"They are beautiful to watch, especially in the early morning," Dr. Cazort said the ejected pollen was especially heavy during a rainy spring, such as Arkansas had this year.

Until Dr. Cazort explained, the "smoking" mulberry had baffled many.

Her high bow is supposed to rise up with the waves which strike it. But the powerful tug pulled Mayflower's nose down. When a wave came she couldn't rise. "It was a delightful journey, and I didn't sleep a wink," said Warwick Charlton, originator of the Mayflower project who will ride his dream boat to America. "I really think I'll have a pleasant journey but of course Mayflower, 26 feet at the waist, is a narrow lady. We expect to be rolled."

Burglar Gang Is Wiped Out By Policemen

CHICAGO, April 19 (AP)—A team of police marksmen ambushed and wiped out a three-man burglar gang early today on the 11th floor of Mandel Brothers big department store on State Street.

Cut down in the blaze of fire from machine guns and shotguns were James Rentner, 28, son of a veteran suburban Oak Park policeman and former Chicago policeman and Mandel store detective himself; James Wulf, 28, owner of an 11-year police record, and Vincent Bartemio, 32, a reform school alumnus.

"They opened fire after I shot a machine gun burst over their heads and told them they were surrounded," said Sgt. James O'Neill who with six other detectives had lain in wait for an attempt to crack the store safe.

The burglars who carried a radio tune, to police calls as a precautionary tool tried to shoot their way out but it was hopeless. Their punctured bodies toppled within a few feet of each other in front of a cashier's window.

None of the officers even was nicked in the exchange of shots.

Police set the trap six hours before it was sprung because each of the three men had been seen loitering in the store recently as if casing it for a burglary. Lt. James Lynch of the burglary detail said.

"We thought something was going to happen but we didn't know it was going to be tonight," Lynch said.

Even the store's private police force did not know of the detectives' presence in the place. At the close of business yesterday the detectives came in disguised as janitors and maintenance men and hid in two places in the credit department on the 11th floor.

Soviet Replies To U.S. Note

MOSCOW, April 19 (AP)—The Soviet Union replied today to a note of last March 11 in which the United States rejected a Soviet proposal for a Big Four declaration on Middle East policy, a U. S. Embassy source said. Britain and France joined in the rejection, and they received similar notes today.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko delivered the new note to U. S. Charge d'Affaires Richard H. Davis. The text was not disclosed.

The Soviet Union proposed on Feb. 11 that the three Western Powers join in a six-point statement of principles regulating Middle Eastern policies. The Kremlin called for renunciation of "military blocs" involving Middle East countries and any of the great powers, liquidation of foreign bases withdrawal of foreign troops from the Middle East, an end to arms shipments, and provision of economic aid with no military or political strings.

The United States told Russia a month later the big nations should not "abrogate to themselves decisions on matters of vital import" to the Middle East, and questioned the sincerity of Russia in making the proposals.

Newsman, CBS, Cited For Hungary Revolt Coverage

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 19 (AP)—The National Headliner Club today cited an Associated Press newsman and the Columbia Broadcasting System for "outstanding coverage" of last October's Hungarian revolt.

AP staffer Andre Marton and CBS were two of the 22 winners of the club's 23rd annual awards. The Hungarian revolt was the only news event of 1956 from which two awards resulted.

A panel of nine judges selected the winners from more than 1,000 entries in the newspaper, television, radio, magazine and news-reel fields.

Marton, who earlier this year received a special George Polk award from Long Island University for his eyewitness account of the massacre in Parliament Square, Budapest, was cited for outstanding coverage of a major foreign news story—"for his beat on the Hungarian revolt."

CBS was cited for outstanding network television coverage of a news event—the revolt itself.

FBI Notified Of Canada's Security Bid

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—The State Department disclosed today that the FBI has been formally notified of Canada's request to withhold from Congress any security data from Canadian sources about Canadian citizens.

State Department press officer Lincoln White made public a copy of a note to the Canadian ambassador, A.D.P. Heeneey. The note said the Canadian government's formal request April 10 was being brought "to the attention of the appropriate executive agencies."

The Canadian request was that the Eisenhower administration promise that, unless special consent is given by Canada, no security data about Canadian citizens will be passed on by the executive agency to any group in Congress or elsewhere over which the executive branch has no control.

"Unless such an assurance can be given" the Canadian government "must reserve the right in future not to supply security information concerning Canadian citizens to any U. S. government agency," Foreign Minister Lester B. Pearson wrote.

The exchange arose out of the case of E. Herbert Norman. Norman was accused last month by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee of having once had Communist ties. He killed himself April 4 in Cairo, where he was Canada's ambassador.

Canada's threat to withhold security information endangered an exchange system which had gone back many years.

White, when asked whether the phrase "approximate executive agencies" included the FBI, replied affirmatively.

Canadian officials have said they were sure the original source was a Canadian police report on Norman, but that the report was later discredited and the U. S. government was so advised.

Six Teen-Agers Crawl Out Of Wrecked, Burning Car

TOWSON, Md., April 19 (AP)—A car carrying six teen-agers ran off the road last night and police said before it skidded to a halt in a burst of flame it:

Went down a 25-foot embankment, careened 375 feet into a guard rail, skidded on its side another 100 feet, went down a second embankment and then slid on its side another 150 feet.

The teenagers, including one girl, crawled out of the flaming car, none with serious injuries. "I can't see how all of them came out of it alive," said Sgt. Leroy Duggan of the Baltimore County police.

The mishap north of Towson occurred about 11:45 p.m. at a cut-

Boat Enters Canal, Has No Fanfare

Egyptians Pleased By First Passage Since Fall Attack

SUEZ, Egypt, April 19 (AP)—A freighter carrying peanuts from China to Rotterdam today became the first British merchantman to enter the Suez Canal since the British-French attack on Egypt last fall. The Egyptians seemed pleased about it.

Without fanfare, the 3,604-ton West Breeze, flying the red ensign of the British merchant marine, entered the southern terminus of the 103-mile waterway. It was early in the morning and no crowds were there to watch.

Another British vessel, the 7,127-ton Poplar Hill, was due in Suez to begin a northward passage tomorrow. The first American ship to transit the canal since the invasion is expected in Suez next week.

Pays Swiss Francs

The West Breeze paid transit tolls in Swiss francs. A spokesman for Lambert Bros., her agents in London, said they were not paid under protest since the vessel is under charter to the Hong Kong firm, Far East Enterprises Co., Ltd., for several trips. An Italian canal pilot was put aboard the freighter, which took up a No. 2 spot in a four-ship convoy.

Capt. I. Cowie, a Briton, locked himself in his cabin and refused to see reporters. He ordered his crew of 42, mostly Chinese with a few Britons, not to fraternize or talk to anyone. The West Breeze is chartered by a Chinese navigation company in Hong Kong.

The first American ship to use the canal since the invasion will be the President Jackson of the American President Lines. The ship is en route to the Red Sea from Karachi with a cargo and 12 cruise passe gers. A spokesman for the lines said in New York the ship would be ready to enter the canal at Suez on Thursday.

The spokesman said government agencies in Washington had been informed that the line is observing all government suggestions, including recording of a protest on payment of the toll and making certain reservations.

Conform With Rules

The newspaper Al Gumhurriya declared British ships are "conforming with the rule of paying tolls to the Suez Canal Authority." The newspaper interpreted the start of British traffic through the canal as indicating that British firms have rebelled against their government. Al Gumhurriya said the companies "rightly regard the canal as a commercial and not a political waterway."

The United States, Britain and France have told their shippers to avoid using the canal pending the outcome of negotiations between the United States and Egypt. But with the negotiations apparently getting little in the way of concessions from the Egyptians, the United States is expected to advise ship operators that if they use the canal they should recognize U. S. Treasury regulations specifying that canal tolls be paid to Egypt only under protest.

Man-Eating Fish In Canada Waters

On The First Easter Eve

Tomorrow is Easter. Yesterday was Good Friday. On the Saturday that comes between them the Christian world casts a glance back to that day, nearly two thousand years ago, when the band of people who had been the followers of Jesus of Nazareth were in blackest despair. Their leader had been crucified the day before. He was executed by the most shameful method that could be visited upon a human being. The light had gone out of their world.

In the Gospel accounts nothing stands out more clearly than the utter spiritual desolation that swept over these men and women. Their lives had been changed by this man who not only "spoke with authority" but who lived a message they dimly understood to be the essence of truth and grace. They had thought him a prophet, even a Messiah. Now he was dead. And what had they to live for?

They did not know then that early the next day some of them would go to the cemetery where His body had been laid and find the stone sealing the tomb rolled away. They did not know that they would come to feel His presence in the weeks to come. They only knew that for them, as far as they could see, everything they had believed in, or hoped for, had turned to ashes. Out of those depths came, slowly, the belief that this could not be the end, that what they had experienced could not merely vanish, that the man who had called himself the Son of Man could not be dead.

And this conviction became the foundation of the Christian faith — the faith that has changed, and continues to change, the world of men. On Easter Day, tomorrow, millions will rejoice again that He is risen.

These Days

The Tax Burden

Every citizen has ideas about what the taxes should be and how to collect them. Nobody really enjoys paying any taxes at all, but most admit that the government needs to meet its bills, and therefore must tax the citizens somewhat. When the "some-what" gets too tough, the citizens write letters to columnists and Congressmen.

What most citizens do not know is that some departments of the government pad their payrolls, expecting Congress to squeeze the padding out. Also that if a department discovers that it has more money on hand than it can spend, ways and means have to be invented to make the money disappear; otherwise it has to be returned to the Treasury and that fouls things up for an enlarged and padded budget the next year.

Also there is an item called "unexpended surpluses," namely, that some departments are able to hide away the amounts that they cannot use in a given year and they hold on to these sums, lawfully or otherwise, so that they can be used as needed. Finally, there are the items which run for more than a fiscal year—say, such an item as building a new-type plane which may run from conception to obsolescence over a couple of years. The trouble here is that when such an item becomes obsolete, even on the drawing board, it is not altogether discarded if the appropriations have been authorized, lest some Congressional committee ask what goes on.

So all this costs money and the taxpayer is required to turn over his earnings to the tax collectors and hopes that he can carry himself along on installment buying until his credit is exhausted, if ever. Now along comes a Yankee from Rockland, Maine, who wants no personal advertising, but he makes a proposition:

"For my money Mr. Sokolsky, all taxation should be based on a person's ability to pay it, and I would think that it would be a very good idea if the city, state, and federal governments, would get together and base their taxation programs on that and then they would have some idea of how much you can take out of a person for taxes, something that only the federal government knows, at this time, as we all have to eat first and pay taxes after, and to that I think that you will agree."

In the first place, how is ability to pay to be measured? At present, it is measured by earnings and we suffer a graduated income tax based on earnings but including a number of exceptions and exemptions. Therefore this gentleman's proposition offers nothing novel because that is the way it is now done. All earnings are reported at least twice, once by the payer and another time by the recipient and to prevent the citizen from spending his earnings as he goes along, Congress has instituted the withholding tax which is a trick whereby one's wages are cut in advance and the tax money taken out. This entails considerable and costly bookkeeping for which the government does not pay.

The psychological effect of the withholding tax is that many who pay taxes do not automatically realize how much they pay. They regard as their wages the net amount that they take home.

My correspondent wants "to eat first and pay taxes after," which is a proposition that the government does not regard as valid. Actually, taxes come first and foremost under the law, and if the citizen cannot eat as he desires because he must pay taxes, that is his problem. A man may have to choose between caviar and a hamburger, but he has no choice as to taxes, which he must pay, come what may.

Also the cost of eating is not deductible except for those who have expense accounts and can sign their names to chits or tabs or whatever the summations are called in the very swiftest restaurants. Only such folks are able to eat leisurely and as much as their gall-bladders will tolerate. A deductible item is a great joy, if you can get it, and an expense account is the best way to live high on the hog prior to taxes.

This, however, everyone should know: taxes are a first lien on one's earnings; they come even before breakfast.

The Post Office And Responsible Government

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — Incalculable losses running into many millions of dollars were suffered by the American people because of the failure of the nation's Post Offices to provide over the last week-end the service normally given.

Business mail was delayed, and many deliveries which had to reach distributing centers on Monday missed connections, thus causing financial losses that now must be borne by individual businesses. In certain types of business there is no way to make up the losses.

This is an example of irresponsible government. The blame belongs to those voters who last autumn gave the nation a Democratic Congress and deprived the President of the majority support needed to control the action of the committees in the Legislative Branch of the government.

The Democrats today are in control of both Houses of Congress. They got ample warning last January that the Post Office Department was running short of funds due to the increased volume of mail. But the Democratic leadership didn't act in time, and a big bill now has to be paid by innocent bystanders.

There is, of course, the usual outburst of political fury and a demand from the Democrats that Postmaster General Summerfield resign. But the record shows he isn't to blame. He warned Congress last January that his funds were running low. Even though the Director of the Budget didn't come up with the needed request for more funds till March 15, still there was ample time for Congress to act before mail service had to be curtailed. At this point, it should be noted that the Postmaster General is prohibited by law from spending money that hasn't been specifically appropriated by Congress.

So it all comes back to the simple fact that there is no harmony between the Legislative and Executive branches of the government. Those pious promises of cooperation made last fall by the Democrats have gone up in smoke—at least so far as they concern voting at the right time the funds needed for the proper support of the Post Office Department.

Postal rates should, of course, be equitably increased all along the line but the need for reform in handling postal receipts is of even greater importance. It turns out, for instance, that all the money collected for the sale of postage stamps doesn't go into the Post Office Department to be used by it, but into the general Treasury, which is certainly an unbusinesslike procedure. For the Post Office has to ask for appropriations for every dollar it spends. In any private business, the funds taken in can be used to pay expenses, but not in the Post Office Department.

The Postmaster General was right in curtailing service because he didn't have the money to pay for it, and Congress was wrong in failing to heed his warnings and give him the necessary funds in time.

Now, however, with the emergency here, Congress is acting promptly, but the American people are asking why they had to be injured before the Democratic Congress took enough notice of the dilemma to do what ought to have been done several weeks ago.

In no other country in the world that boasts of a free government would a situation such as has just arisen be possible.

Summerfield's Record Outstanding Despite Some Bad Political Errors

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — Postmaster General Summerfield called me a liar the other day when I reported that he had pulled wires to shut down the Congressional probe of Jimmy Hoffa and teamster racketeering in the Detroit area. Now that he's being kicked around by Congress and the public generally, it might be a good time to come back at him.

Forgetting Mr. Summerfield's political errors, however, and sticking to his record as Postmaster General, it's hard to come back at him. For, despite his hassle with Congress, the facts as I review them are that Summerfield has done a pretty good job. I have watched quite a few postmasters and I don't know anyone who has done better.

Let's look at the record.

Though the USA has expanded, Summerfield has run his huge operation with fewer employees. There were 523,757 in 1952 when he took over. There were 508,587 in 1956.

In that same period, mail had jumped from 49.9 billion pieces in 1952 to 56.4 billion pieces in 1956. There were 300,000 new home owners in 1956 and 250,000 new business concerns. Yet Summerfield ran the post office with less personnel.

The record also shows that Summerfield has been careful with the taxpayers' money. He has gone back to Congress only once before for more money. This was in fiscal year 1956 when he needed and got an extra $166 million.

In 1954, on the other hand, he turned back $105 million to the Treasury, and in 1955 he turned back almost $50 million.

His trouble this year is that he made a mistake in estimating the increased volume of mail. He figured it would be 2.8 per cent more than the last fiscal year, when actually it turned out to be 4 per cent more. This error of 1.2 per cent doesn't seem like much, but when you're operating 38,000 post offices it runs into both money and mail — 59 billion pieces this year.

Magazine Lobby

The curly-haired Postmaster General, who once was the world's biggest Chevrolet dealer, has made a lot of people sore at him by revamping outmoded postal equipment and operations.

He also hasn't hesitated to tackle the big magazine mailers, whose second-class privileges run him into the red deeper than any other item.

It happens that these big magazine owners are the best supporters of the Republican Party has. Every major magazine in the USA was for Ike in 1952 and 1956, and some of the publishers were also heavy campaign contributors.

Henry Luce and his beautiful wife contributed $30,875 to Ike last November, while their publication, Life Magazine, cost the Post Office Department and the taxpayer $9,310,000 — the difference between the actual revenue received by the post office from Life Magazine and what it cost the post office to deliver it. Time and Fortune, also Luce publications, caused the post office another sizable loss.

Roland Harriman and Vincent Astor, chief owners of Newsweek, contributed $34,350 and $7,500 respectively to Ike last year. Newsweek, in turn, cost the post office a substantial loss in second-class-mailing expense, so that the taxpayer indirectly helped subsidize the magazine even though he may have voted for Stevenson.

John and Mike Cowles, publishers of Look Magazine, are also strong Ike supporters. According to the latest figures available, their magazine costs the post office and the taxpayers $3,482,000 annually to deliver.

McCall Corporation now has a new president, none other than ex-Gov. Arthur Langlie of Washington. He too was a strong Ike supporter. And his McCall's Magazine costs the post office a formidable annual loss of $1,507,000.

However, it should be said for Summerfield that, though he's a politician and though he's raised plenty of cash for the GOP — some of it by means that brought some convictions of Michigan auto dealers—he has bucked the big magazine owners.

Some people think he hasn't bucked them strongly enough. But right now Reader's Digest is circulating among Congressmen advance copies of its May issue blasting Summerfield's operation. DeWitt Wallace, publisher of Reader's Digest, who is fighting Summerfield, is a strong Republican and, with Mrs. Wallace, contributed $7,250 to the party coffers. His magazine cost the post office the huge sum of $4,172,000 in second-class-mailing losses.

The inescapable fact is that the 10 top magazines of the nation account for three-fourths of the second-class mail. And Summerfield knows he has to beat the magazine lobby if he's going to come anywhere near balancing the postal budget.

In my opinion, the Postmaster General has made some bad political boners in his day, but running the post office is not one of them.

Note—The Luce magazine empire of Time, Life and Fortune has just announced figures showing that in 1956, 25 cents out of every advertising dollar spent in magazines went to a Luce publication. Net income for the year was $13,850,000 or $7.10 a share. Earned surplus increased $20.3 million to $62.4 a million. Time, also part owner of Houston Oil, is constructing a paper mill in Louisiana and a 47-story building in Rockefeller Center, New York City. Time also has acquired five VHF television stations the maximum permissible plus some radio stations. It constitutes perhaps the largest privately owned force for influencing public opinion, part of it built up through postal benefits.

The Easter Parade

By Brother Barnabas

What to wear tomorrow in the Easter parade is the proper concern of every woman who wants to make a smart appearance.

With men the problem is more simple. Clean linen, polished shoes, haircut, handkerchief coyly protruding from breast pocket will suffice.

According to Jesus, in matters of dress, one should adhere to simplicity, on the ground that what one is within himself is more important than what he puts on.

He admonishes (Matthew 6:28) "Why are you anxious about clothing?" and reverts to Solomon as an example of overindulgence in apparel, food, wine, women and song, all of which led to his undoing.

Solomon provided the very antithesis of the simple life which Jesus proposed under the symbol of a lily.

With 60 queens and 80 concubines on his hands Solomon must have had everything but peace of mind. And if ever he needed more help he had only to annex another foreign princess with her dowry to his staff, until in the span of his reign he had in his harem 700 wives and 300 concubines.

It required as much wisdom and as large a budget to keep that many women profitably employed as Uncle Sam requires to run the government, whether the employees work or not.

Solomon had the know-how and the wherewithal and knew all the answers, so that when the Queen of Sheba plied him with many questions he answered them all to her satisfaction. The record (I Kings 10:1-10) does not state that she ever married the king, but when she was told how happy his wives were, she said "the half wasn't told."

It seems an oversimplification to think of the panicky age in which we live in terms of a lily; yet Jesus, remembering Solomon's glory, said "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow."

By common consent the lily is the Easter flower. It is "the sweetest thing God ever made and forgot to put a soul into."

Considered botanically, the arrangement of calyx, corolla, stamens, ovule, shows the hand of the Creator.

I took a day to search for God and found him not. But as I walked by rocky ledge through woods untamed, Just where one scarlet lily flamed I found his footsteps in the sod."

Consider the fragrance of the lily. There are more voluptuous scents, but the scent of the lily is delicate and pleasing to the most sensitive olfactorys.

The olfactory nerve is the only one directly connected with the hemisphere of the brain where we have every reason to believe the intellectual processes are performed.

It is likely therefore that the theme of Immortality will have a livelier interest if the atmosphere of the sanctuary is permeated with the smell of lilies than if saturated with pasties of Sabeen unguents and perfumes.

The lily was born of earth and sky. Plant the ugly bulb in the soil, upside down if you will, and it will right itself and reach upward toward heaven.

The lily finds beauty in chaff, chopped straw, barnyard sweepings and all kinds of rubbish. Because of its very nature it overcomes the world. It gives a silent rebuke to men who want the flower but not the root.

The lily "loils not, neither does it spin." But that does not justify a laissez faire attitude toward the evils of the world.

We have come upon a modern interpretation of a much loved bit of Scripture, Matthew 11:28, which we have made to read: "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and relax."

One Easter parade two city women met, one wearing a woolen dress and the other silk. The silk-garbed woman said "Skin of a sheep." The other said, "Entrails of a worm."

In this case neither added to her charm of loveliness.

With so much evil rampant in the world, the slurs of our cities, the greed that disfigures our highways with ugly signs, pollutes our rivers, denudes our forests, the thoughtless and careless selfishness that is responsible for most forest fires which each year convert lovely areas into scorched and barren wastes, petty rivalries and jealousies have no place.

A sign appeared on a roadway, which with one omission expressed a hope rather than a pious sentiment: "Glory to God in the High St." That's where it belongs, thinks

AND THEN...IT'S EASTER!

Yesterday, these four were their Mothers' despair. Their faces were grimy, their playclothes spattered with mud. They were even ready to put up their fists and fight when the rivalry between spacemen and cowboys became a little too keen.

Today, they are immaculate. They sing like young angels. They even look like angels... because today is Easter! And these boys are proclaiming the glorious message that Christ Is Risen.

Easter is the time of promise, beauty, awe at the miracle of birth and rebirth. Easter is the time to let the joy of living seep into you. It is the time to tell yourself that you believe... and, if there's been any doubt about it, to start believing again.

Spend part of your Easter in Church. Spend the rest of it looking, with new eyes, at the wonderland God has created around you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Secrets Of Charm

Choosing Your Lipstick

In days when cosmetics were frowned upon, women bit their lips to give them color. Long before those days, before Cleopatra's time even, the lips were tediously painted with red dye. How much easier it is today to enhance natural coloring — with lipstick.

And, how important it is to make the right selection from the variety of shades available, for I have seen many a woman spoil the effect of an attractive costume with a garnish or unmatching lipstick.

The tone and brilliance of your lipstick should equal the tone and brilliance of your dress. Its shade should compliment the coloring of your hair and skin.

Lipstick shades can be grouped in three categories: those with underlying bluish cast, those with an orange cast, and the clear reds.

Your Best Shades

As a guide to selecting your most flattering colors, my cosmetics expert suggest the pink, rose and wine shades of bluish hue if you have white or blonde hair and ivory or pink-white skin; the pink or lighter orange shades if you are a medium brunette or blonde and have skin with golden undertones; the warm shades if you are a redhead with transparent white skin, and the clear reds for the darker brunette whose skin has deep golden undertones.

The fairer your coloring, the lighter your lipstick and rouge range should be. If you verge from medium blonde to brunette, you can play with bright and medium shades. Only if you are the sultry, dark-eyed brunette should you go in for the dark lipsticks; even then, use the deep shades at night, and keep to the brighter tones for daytime.

Key your lipstick to your costume, and you can wear a dress of almost any color. Follow my general suggestions for complementing your hair and skin first, but consider these variations: with greens, a clear red lipstick; with grays, a pink, fuchsia-toned; with yellows, a scarlet; with browns, rust-red; with reds, a lipstick matching exactly the red in your costume.

Basic And Beyond
It would be nice to have a lipstick for every dress in your wardrobe; it is more practical to coordinate one lipstick to your basic wardrobe color, and have a spare or two for "variety dresses."

If you are a blonde, for example you may find a peach or orange shade most flattering with your fundamental color scheme. When you wear beige, choose a bright red lipstick to relieve the neutral effect of hair and costume hues.

MRS. PETER GIBSON

National President Will Address Frostburg Group

The Frostburg Women's Republican Club will have Mrs. Peter Gibson, national president, as guest speaker at its annual spring dinner April 30.

Mrs. Gibson, of Monroe, Mich., was elected president of the National Federation of Republican Women at the Chicago convention in September, 1956. As the top elected woman in the Republican party, Mrs. Gibson is no novice on the political scene. She has been an active worker in the party since 1936 when she started out by driving around to pick up absentee ballots. Since that time Mrs. Gibson has worked as a precinct worker, county vice-chairman, and served for four years as president of her local club and four years as president of the State Federation of Republican Women of Michigan. After serving next as state vice-chairman of the Michigan State Central committee, she was named chairman of Council of Vice-Chairmen of twenty-one states.

At the National Convention in 1952, Mrs. Gibson was the only woman delegate from Michigan and served on the Resolutions committee. She was a delegate to the San Francisco Convention in 1956. Although Mrs. Gibson has devoted a great deal of time to politics, she has always enjoyed working on committees and in various capacities with the Eastern Star, the Rainbow Girls, the Presby-terian church, and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Born in Sullivan, Ind., Mrs. Gibson later lived in Detroit where she attended the Wicker School of Fine Art. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have one daughter, Mrs. Douglas Taylor, who lives in Chicago.

The dinner will be held at State Teachers College, Frostburg, beginning at 6:30. Mrs. J. Glenn Beall will present Mrs. Gibson. Miss Katherine W. Close will preside.

Reservations for the dinner are to be made by April 23, by calling Mrs. Noel S. Cook, phone 329 or Miss Close, 201.

Frostburg Sets May 1 As Date Of Cleanup

City Trucks To Haul Refuse

FROSTBURG — Street Commissioner James H. Evans has announced a city-wide "cleanup" campaign. He urged all citizens to take full advantage of the free trash collection service to give properties a spring "facelifting."

"Spring is here," Evans stated, "and Frostburg's annual cleanup campaign will begin officially May 1. However, he asked citizens to use the remaining weeks of April and to start the campaign early."

Evans said city trucks will cover all streets west of Broadway Wednesday and all streets east of Broadway next Thursday, picking up all rubbish placed at the curb in cartons or containers. He pointed out that this service is furnished free of charge to the citizens of Frostburg, whereas most other cities charge a fee for the collection of rubbish.

Alleys and back streets formerly littered with tin cans and broken bottles before the service was initiated are now clean.

The Lonaconing Post Office hours today will be until noon when it will be closed for the Easter holiday.

Fort Hill Finishes Third In Handley Invitation Meet

Tom Snyder Sets School Discus Mark

Webster Cops 220, Handley Is Victor, Waynesboro Second

Handley High School won its 18th annual invitational track and field meet yesterday by amassing 81 1/2 points in a program of 15 events at Winchester, Va.

Waynesboro (Va.) High School nosed Fort Hill out of second place, 47 to 45 1/2, by defeating the Sentinels in the mile relay by the close margin of six inches. Fairfax (Va.) High School finished fourth with 14 1/2 tallies. Martinsburg (W. Va.) was fifth with nine and Wilson Memorial High of Fishersville, Va., brought up the rear with 8 1/2 markers.

Set Two New Records

Two new meet records were established yesterday. Jones of Waynesboro ran the half mile in 2:04.6, bettering the previous mark of 2 minutes, 5.5 seconds set in 1939 and equalled in 1956. Crisman of Handley pole vaulted 11 feet, 9 1/2 inches for the other new record. He beat his own mark of 11 feet, 1 1/2 inches, established last year.

Fort Hill was competing in the Handley event for the 11th consecutive year. In previous meets at Winchester the Sentinels had won twice, finished second five times and took third place on three occasions.

Waynesboro topped six firsts. Handley, five, Fort Hill, two, and Fairfax, one. The high jump ended in a four-way tie for first place and involved Handley, Martinsburg and Fort Hill athletes.

Three athletes posted "doubles." Crisman of Handley won the 100 yards dash and pole vault. Traynham of Waynesboro topped the low and high hurdles and Jones of Waynesboro was first in the 440 and 880-yard runs.

Danny Webster, of Fort Hill, was edged in the century dash by Crisman of Handley but he managed to turn the tables on the Virginian in the 220, negotiating the distance in 23.8 seconds.

Sets School Record

Tom Snyder of Fort Hill finished second to Kerr of Handley in the discus but his heave of 130 feet, 4 inches was a new school record. The previous mark of 132 feet, 8 inches was hung up by Gene Weber.

Fort Hill's quartet of Dalton Hillegas, John Rice, Bill Powell and Danny Webster copped the 880-yard relay in 1:38.

Derby Eligibles In Laurel Event

LAUREL, Md., April 19 (AP)—A flock of 15 aspiring 3-year-olds, five of them eligible for the Kentucky Derby, were crowded today into the entry list for tomorrow's $200,000-added Chesapeake Stakes.

The mile and a sixteenth race has been Maryland's principal spring test since 1920 for the year's crop of 3-year-olds.

Prospects that it will send any on to the Kentucky Derby next month are slim. The five possibilities are Cain Hoy Stable's The Hammer, J. Allen Fusca's Dark Trust, Carolyn K Stable's Pro-Brandy, Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Roscoe Maney and Mrs. C. B. Fischbach's Federal Judge.

Most of the others will have to await the Preakness at Pimlico, the second of the Triple Crown classics, on May 18 to strike for real fame.

These include a pair owned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords, Gannet and Bakht, who are expected to be made the Chesapeake favorites.

The other entries are Brandywine Stable's Cannon Fire, Howell E. Jackson's Four Fathoms and Cross Channel, J. R. Weiner's Nittime, Roslyn Farm's Inswapt, John A. Manfuso's Astracorn, Mrs. Patricia Haun's See Me Go, Cary C. Boshamer's Gama and Mrs. C. B. Fischbach's Federal Judge.

Fifteen starters will make the total prize money $25,750 with the winner netting $18,425.

Federal Judge is eligible so far only for the Derby, but along with 12 of the others in Chesapeake Field could be made an entry for either the Preakness or Belmont by paying a late premium fee.

Gannet, Four Fathoms, Inswapt, Astracorn, Cross Channel and Bakht are eligible now for the Preakness and Belmont while Cannon Fire is in the Belmont list.

The Hammer, Dark Trust, and Roscoe Maney are eligible for all of the Triple Crown classics.

Moorefield Scores 26th Consecutive Win In PVC

Beats Petersburg Vikings, 15-5, Ties Keyser For Lead

Moorefield High School's defending champions tied Keyser High School for first place in the Potomac Valley Conference baseball race by defeating the Petersburg High School Vikings yesterday at Petersburg by the score of 15-5.

The victory was the fourth of the season for Coach Jonathan Paugh's tossers and extended their three-year victory streak in the conference to 26 games. The Hardy Countians posted 10-0 records in 1955 and 1956.

Harry Fitzwater hurled six innings for the Jackets and received credit for his second win of the campaign. He yielded five hits and five runs, walked one and fanned three. George Sherman finished on the mound for Moorefield. Petersburg used four pitchers and the loss was charged to Gary Hogbin, who started for the Vikings.

Moorefield spotted Petersburg five runs in the first inning but Fitzwater and Sherman pitched shutout ball thereafter. Redman, the last of four Viking hurlers, fanned the side in the final frame.

Jim Vetter, Donnie Schell, Don Ferrebee, Ralph Bean and Jimmy Paugh shared 10 of Moorefield's 12 hits. Ferrebee smashed a two-run homer in the third during the five run rally that gave the Jackets a 6-3 lead. The winners scored eight runs in the fifth stanza. Bill Reynolds and Estel Sites collected two hits each for Petersburg which suffered its third straight setback in the conference.

Needles Scratched From $50,000 Race

MIAMI, Fla., April 19 (AP)—Needles was scratched today from entries in the $50,000 Southern Cross Handicap to be run at Gulfstream Park tomorrow.

He had been expected to be the odds-on choice in the mile and an eighth race. Withdrawal of the Florida-born horse leaves 14 entries in the race.

Needles, who won his last start two weeks ago when he took the Fort Lauderdale Handicap and who had won the Kentucky Derby as a three-year-old, would have carried 130 pounds tomorrow. It would have been the highest impost of his career.

Don January Leads Tourney Of Champions

Posts 2nd Round 65 For 143 Total

LAS VEGAS, Nev., April 19 (AP)—Free-swinging Don January, a young Texan with an aching back, slammed a 7-under-par 65 for a course record and the lead at the midway mark of the $40,000 Tournament of Champions today.

The 27-year-old professional from Lampasas, Tex., with a remarkable comeback from a dismal round of 78 yesterday, toured the sunswept Desert Inn Country Club Course this warm afternoon in 32-33 for his 65 and a 36-hole total of 143.

Par for the test is 36-36—72, and January's 65 broke the course record of 66 which Art Wall Jr. set in winning this event in 1954.

January, who turned pro in May 1955, goes into tomorrow's third round with a 2-stroke lead over the field.

Tied at 143 were Jimmy Demaret of Kiamasha Lake, N.Y.; Billy Casper Jr., of Bonita, Calif.; and Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa. Demaret shot a 72, Casper 70 and Palmer 73.

Palmer and Ed Furgol led off as co-leaders from the first round. Furgol took a 77 for 149.

Gene Littler, who won the $10,000 top money here in 1955 and 1956, stayed in contention with his second straight 73 for 146.

Comebacks were the order of the day. Dick Mayer cut his initial 78 to 70, and Bob Rosburg went from 79 to 71. Jay Hebert, who took 11 strokes on one hole and shot an 83, came back with a 70.

Doug Sanders cut his 81 to 71.

Terp Stickmen Wallop Colgate

National Champs Post 16-2 Victory

COLLEGE PARK, Md., April 19 (AP)—Maryland's defending national champions, controlling the ball and scoring with ease, swamped the Colgate lacrosse team 16-2 today.

The Terps took 52 shots while allowing the husky Colgate offense only 15. Colgate didn't get a single shot in the final quarter.

Maryland's three sophomore attackmen accounted for six goals and four assists.

Bob Nolker had three goals and two assists, Larry McLean three goals and Dick Britt two assists. Dick Nolker, Sonny Tamburello and Stewart Carlisle, also effective on the offensive, had two goals each.

Doane Lydecker scored both Colgate goals.

The Terps face a major hurdle next Saturday, however, in their bid for another undefeated season. They play Navy at Annapolis.

Fred Knorr Quits As Detroit Prexy

DETROIT, April 19 (AP)—Fred A. Knorr stepped aside today as president of the Detroit Tigers after holding the office less than seven months. He said he had too many other things to do and could not devote enough time to his baseball job.

Taking over for Knorr, who moves to a newly-created position as vice chairman of the board of directors, is Harvey R. Hansen, 61-year-old Detroitier with widespread and highly-profitable business interests.

"I'm the president or a member of the board of directors of 19 different corporations," said Knorr. "I was just getting a little weary with too many things to do and I felt it best to let someone else take over the presidency of the ball club."

Triandos Injured

BALTIMORE, April 19 (AP)—Catcher Gus Triandos, who knocked in six runs in the first three games, will be lost to the Baltimore Orioles for an indefinite period with a back injury.

Club officials said today Triandos has a "bruise and strain in the left lumbar (kidney) region" as the result of a collision with the Washington Senators' Herb Plew at home plate in Washington last night.

The collision appeared to be a minor one. Neither player was knocked off his feet.

Another BUTLER Building at Work

"A BUTLER building solved our warehouse crisis in a hurry."

says Mr. R. E. Dinnsen, Asst. to General Manager
Midstates Auto Electric Co., Distributors

"Our old warehouse outlived its usefulness," Mr. Dinnsen relates. "We are central warehouse distributor for several manufacturers and couldn't stand much delay in getting a new warehouse. A Butler steel building saved us plenty of storage headaches. The structure was ready for use in one-fourth the time conventional construction takes. Fits our warehouse needs to a 'T,' and the cost was lowest for a building that fitted our needs. Maintenance is practically nil. We are satisfied we made the most profitable selection in every way."

Low Burdette Is Angered, Denies Throwing Spitter

Says Other Hurlers Go To Mouth; Paul Protests To Giles

By CHUCK CAPALDO

MILWAUKEE, April 19 (AP)—Milwaukee's Lew Burdette, no longer amused by Manager Birdie Tebbetts' charge that he is "a cheating spitballer," today admitted he goes to his mouth often when he pitches, but declared Cincinnati's pitchers do it too and there's nothing illegal about it.

"I'm no spitballer and I'm no cheat," said the 30-year-old Braves right-hander whose 1-0 victory over the Redlegs yesterday preceded a bitter blast by Tebbetts that was referred to the National League office today.

Wipes Hand On Shirt
"Whenever I go to my mouth, I wipe off my hand on my shirt before I pitch," Burdette told the Associated Press. "A lot of other pitchers do the same thing, including some of Birdie's boys."

"The rule (8:02) doesn't say you can't go to your mouth. It says you aren't allowed to apply a foreign substance of any kind to it or rub it on your uniform. Well, I don't do any of those things."

Tebbetts, who yesterday claimed Burdette threw the illegal spitter 25 per cent of the time, said, "the rule doesn't say anything about rubbing your fingers off after wetting them."

"I want a clarification of that rule, so we'll know what you can do and what you can't," Tebbetts added.

Lew Is Surprised
Burdette, who twitches on the mound like a rock 'n' roll singer with St. Vitus dance, said Tebbetts' charges surprised him.

"I didn't think I did anything to agitate him like that," said Burdette, who has beaten the Redlegs eight straight times since 1955.

"Sure, I've tried to get his goat in the past, but I didn't do it yesterday."

"I don't like the idea of a guy calling me a cheat," he continued. "That's carrying this thing too far. He's stirring up a big stink that isn't going to do him or me any good. I don't mind him squawking about it, but if he's going to stir up a lot of trouble, I think he's going a little too far."

Fidgety When Pitching
Burdette said he is naturally fidgety when he is pitching and added:

"I don't have any special reason for doing the things I do. It's just a habit of long standing. I go to my mouth, I'm up around the peak of my hat, I'm wiping the perspiration off my forehead or out of my eyes. But I never intentionally wet the ball. "Some moisture is bound to get on the ball. It can come from anyone, from the infielders when they handle the ball, from the catcher when he rubs it up. But

District Girl Scouts Skating Party Today

Girl Scouts from District 1, 2 and 3 will skate from 10:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. today at the State Armory, Miss Olive Hurlburt, Girl Scout executive, announced yesterday.

All Scouts wishing to receive their skating proficiency badges at ceremonies Saturday, April 27, are urged to be present this Saturday.

The badge ceremonies next week will feature a program for parents and will climax sessions which began in November.

In order to qualify for a badge, the Girl Scout must be able to skate in good form, forward, backward and in dance position. She must know different skating figures and execute a "figure 8," learn to play at least three games and participate in a skating show. She must also make and wear some article of clothing for skating.

Miss Hurlburt said requests have been received from the Girl Scout Planning Board for more future projects such as skating.

Post Office Reduces Third Class Backlog

The backlog of third class mail that jammed the facilities of the Post Office this week is being worked down to normal proportions, postal officials said yesterday, adding that the process is slowed somewhat by Easter mailings.

A directive from Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield last week halted window service and deliveries for Saturday and Sunday, with the exception of special deliveries. No third class mail or parcel post was worked until Tuesday, with the result that the Post Office work areas were reminded of the Christmas mailing season.

Congress this week rushed through a money bill for $41 million to restore normal postal services, the amount $6 million less than had been requested by Summerfield.

Some of the less eye-catching effects of the restrictions originally imposed by the postmaster general are still in effect since he did not receive the $47 million he requested.

One of these, local postal officials pointed out, is the restriction on allowances for carriers uniforms. Each carrier receives $100 annually for uniforms. It was explained that the carriers order their uniforms and then present the bills to the local department heads for payment through postal appropriations.

Normal deliveries will be made today, and window service will be available from 8 a. m. to noon. It was pointed out, however, that the new window hours, 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m., will remain in effect until further notice.

Teamsters Union Wins Election At McIntyre's Bakery

Local 453, Teamsters and Chauffeurs Union, has won a National Labor Relations Board election at McIntyre's Bakery, Westernport, covering the firm's 17 drivers.

The union has represented the bakery's route salesmen, retail and wholesale for about five years.

The company filed a petition with the NLRB for decertification proceedings against the union.

Charles E. Bramble, local president, said the union and company have agreed to a new contract calling for a pension fund and ten-cent an hour increase for hourly paid employees. Sidney Smith, field examiner for the NLRB, conducted the election.

Contracts were renewed by Pepsi Cola Bottling Company and the Nehi Bottling Company, both of this city, for employees represented by the Teamsters Union.

Bramble said case commissions were increased, plant workers received a ten-to-15-cent-an-hour wage boost at both plants.

A pension fund was effected in the Pepsi Cola contract and a health and welfare plan in the Nehi pact.

Easter Cantata Set Tomorrow

An Easter cantata "King Triumphant" will be presented Sunday at 11 a. m. at St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed Church by the sanctuary choir.

The organ prelude "Alleluia" will be played by Mrs. Edna Loper. She will also play "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth" as the offertory and "Hallelujah" as the postlude.

Mrs. Helen Keady will sing "Thou Art My God" and Raymond D. Hartsock, baritone, and Mrs. Sara Stouffer, soprano, will sing "The Entry into Jerusalem." The choir will sing "Ride On in Majesty."

Mrs. Mabel Schack will sing "Jerusalem" and W. Edward Jenkins, tenor soloist, will sing "Gethsemane" and Hartsock will sing "Hail, King of the Jews." The male chorus will sing "And There Was Darkness." Mrs. Schack will sing "Christ Is Risen" and W. Cletus Hartsock will sing "An Easter Prayer."

"The Ascension" will be sung by the women's chorus and the choir will present "King Triumphant" to close the program. W. Cletus Hartsock is director of the choir.

Contract Awarded For Bridge Work

The State Roads Commission has awarded a contract for improving two bridges across Georges Creek to a Manchester, Md., firm.

The successful and low bidder was the State Foundation Company with a figure of $20,000.

Improvement work, including new decking, is scheduled for the Watercliffe Road Bridge in Lonaconing and the Morrison Road Bridge south of Barton.

Both run off State Route 36, and G. Bates Chaires, district engineer for the State Roads Commission, said they will be turned over to the Allegheny County Commissioners for inclusion in the county road program upon their completion.

Local Student Is In College Play

Road Traffic Is Heavy As Easter Nears

Rain Expected Over Weekend

Highway traffic along U. S. Routes 40 and 50 and the Pennsylvania Turnpike was very heavy last night and authorities reported the good news that there were no serious accidents by 9:30 p. m. as motorists were crowding the highways for the long Easter weekend.

Cumberland also had its share of traffic as last minute shoppers came downtown to purchase Easter finery. The weather was pleasant for traveling yesterday.

Maryland State Police at LaVale pointed out that highway traffic was "right heavy" along U. S. Route 40 east and west of the Queen City.

West Virginia State Police at Romney reported similar traffic conditions along U. S. Route 50 east and west of that community. Autos traveling that main route were "bumper to bumper" in Romney.

State Police at Bedford said it was "all quiet" as far as serious accidents were concerned although traffic was heavy along the Turnpike especially in the direction of Altoona and Johnstown.

Everett, Pa. was having heavy traffic also according to Pennsylvania State Police stationed there. Weatherwise the outlook for today and tomorrow is not too cheerful for those planning to enter the Easter parade.

Robert R. Golden, superintendent of Constitution Park said there is a chance of a portion of Easter Sunday being nice. Yesterday's official high in Cumberland was 65 and the low reading was 53.

Cloudy skies are expected today and also chance of drizzle and some fog along the coastal sector. Possible thundershowers are also forecast.

The mercury may rise to 80 this afternoon.

North Stone To Be Raised

Provisions have been made for the preservation of the North Stone, one of the important but little known landmarks of the city, during the flood control project.

Specifications set up by the Corps of Engineers provide that the contractor must protect the North Stone and raise it to a new elevation.

The mark is on a bronze tablet set into a pier of the old mule bridge of the old C & O Canal, located on the banks of Riverside Park near the old bandstand.

Established by the government many years ago, the North Stone and the South Stone, located 280 feet away near the corner of the Snyder building, are used as the basis of all coordinates of the city.

W.Va. Road Plan Changes Seen

CHARLESTON, W. Va., April 19 (AP)—West Virginia's road program, a major plank in Gov. Underwood's election campaign, is taking up a large part of his schedule, he said today.

"Right now," Underwood told his news conference, "I'm taking an unusual amount of time to work with the new road commissioner, not to dominate his department, but so that the facilities of my office will be available to him."

Under the 1957 legislative act reorganizing the State Road Commission, the governor explained, Road Commissioner Patrick C. Graney still must choose two assistants, a chief engineer assistant and a business manager, as well as a comptroller and a personnel man.

Once the staff is named, Underwood said:

"They may well want to make revisions in this year's road program. It is logical to expect they will have a complete new program ready by January (to submit to the 1958 Legislature)."

As for the controversial route of the interstate highway plan in the Charleston area, Underwood said he does not know what plans have been made.

Rotary Club To Host Miss Barbara Mann

Miss Barbara Mann, president of the Senate of the recent Model Legislature, will be the guest of the Cumberland Rotary at its Tuesday meeting at 12:15 p. m. at Central YMCA.

Miss Mann will preside over the luncheon meeting which will be conducted like a special meeting of the legislature with each Rotarian acting as a senator. Lawrence H. Dehn is in charge of the program.

New Quarters Are Readied

Local Army Reserve units will move into their new army quarters on Walnut Place, between Paca and Beall Streets on May 1. Crews have been remodeling the former Farmers Dairy plant as an armory for the reserve units, which have been training in one of the units of the old Footer Building for a number of years.

Gov. McKeldin Begins Trip Overseas Today

"Good Will Tokens" Will Go With Him

ANNAPOLIS, April 19 (AP)—Gov. McKeldin—loaded down with miniature Maryland flags, coat-of-arms cuff links and other "tokens of good will"—will leave tomorrow for a 5-week trip abroad.

On the first leg of his trip, the governor will fly from New York to Monrovia, the capital of Liberia in West Africa. He will spend five days there participating in the centennial celebration of the State of Maryland in Liberia.

Maryland in Africa was settled as an independent republic in 1822 by freed Negro slaves who migrated there from Maryland. In 1857 it was incorporated as the County of Maryland in Liberia and later became the State of Maryland.

The governor will make two speeches in Monrovia, one when he accepts a decoration from the Liberian government and the other on April 25 when he receives an honorary doctor of laws degree from the University of Liberia.

Among gifts McKeldin plans to give his host in return is a Maryland flag which he ordered flown over the Statehouse yesterday.

Gov. and Mrs. McKeldin will leave Liberia April 26 and fly to Lisbon where they will spend two days "at leisure."

From there the McKeldins will go to Madrid, Spain, where they will spend two days before flying to Frankfurt, Germany. They will remain in Germany until starting home May 26.

During his three weeks in Germany the governor will inspect facilities of the Overseas Program of the University of Maryland at various military installations.

Among those making this tour with him will be Dr. Wilson H. Elkins, university president. On May 25 McKeldin will make the commencement address at graduation exercises of the university's College of Special and Continuing Studies in Heidelberg.

For the first two weeks of their trip—through their visit to Spain—the McKeldins will be accompanied by Thomas J. S. Waxter, director of the State Department of Public Welfare, and Mrs. Waxter.

Moose Will Sell Paper Easter Lilies Here Today

As one of their civic affairs projects, members of Cumberland Lodge 271, Loyal Order of Moose, today will solicit aid for crippled children of Allegany County through the sale of papier-mache Easter lilies along Baltimore Street.

At least 15 members, according to Arthur Gellner, chairman, will join in the sale of lilies which will be held from 11 a. m. through 4 p. m.

On hand for the project will be Walter Komorowski, of Baltimore, state chairman of civic affairs of the Moose Order in Maryland, Delaware and Washington, D. C.

The local lodge has handled the sale of Easter lilies for five or six years. Last year proceeds amounted to about $386. Mr. Gellner is urging residents to purchase a lily when approached by a member of the Moose Lodge since the funds are used for a worthy cause.

In Frostburg, members of Lodge 348, L.O.M., will handle the sale of lilies. Fuller Davis, lodge secretary, said last night that a group of members of the organization will sell the lilies in the business section, beginning about 10:30 a. m. until 6 p. m.

Boy Scouts of that community also are expected to assist in the sale of the Easter lilies. The Frostburg Lodge has been in charge of the sale for the past five years.

Proceeds will be turned over to the Allegany County League for Crippled Children.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars in Lonaconing will conduct a similar Easter lily sale in Lonaconing today.

EASTER SEAL LUCKY BUCKS NEEDED NOW

The next 213 bucks mailed for Easter Seals will be lucky for crippled children in Allegany county because that's the number of dollars needed to make the 1957 seal campaign total $7,500.

Over 23,000 residents of Allegany county received Easter Seals in the mail a month ago, and a check yesterday showed $7,287 had been received in returns at headquarters.

Much more than $7,000 is needed, however, to finance treatment of crippled children in this section, and it is hoped that at least $10,000 will be received during the Easter season this year.

Don't hold back if you have not yet mailed your money for the seals. It's possible that the buck you haven't returned is the dollar that will be needed to reach this year's goal.
